Happy New Year to you all.

We had a small but pleasant turn out for the Holiday Party. I hope if you were ill, you are now over it. We had lots of good food and some gift surprises.

We got to meet a new lace maker from the UK and her family. She has moved to CA and had a really great time with Maria's grandchildren.

Bill will be teaching a crochet in color class for January. It is a cool way to change colors in the work. I wonder if it works in tatting?

What is on your wish list for classes in the new year? Do you need a finishing class? a repeat of one from long ago? Time and support for a UFO on a pillow? Sylvia needs input, She is also looking for a replacement for the job of finding teachers.

How did your UFO list go this year? I got lots finished ... but still have 5 large projects to carry into the new year. I guess that is down from last year's 6.

Thanks to all those who did demos in 2014. Write down your hours so when April comes, we will have all the hours.

Stay warm and healthy and bring your lace to share.

Julia

Happy New Year
2015

MINUTES

President Julia Brock called the December 6, 2014 meeting of the Freeway Lace Guild to order at 10:50a. Welcome to Heidi's friend Darlene and longtime member Ramsa whom we always see at the holiday affair. The minutes were approved with the following correction: "Betty Jo is entering her 9th decade." (Apologies from the Secretary whose had a momentary lapse. Her mother is entering her 10th decade. Didn't intend to age anyone. Perhaps an effect of recent secretarial birthday, decade unknown.)

COMMITTEES

Membership: Heidi has 2015 forms and they were in the newsletter. Get them to her as soon as possible so she can complete the directory.

Treasury: No report due to Louise's absence.

Demonstrations: Bill reported that Chaffey Garcia went well. They enjoy having us. Mark your calendars for Saturday, June 13, 2015 at the Homestead Museum in the City of Industry, 10-1p. Dress appropriately. They have requested a teaching (hands-on) event.

Library: Betty Jo will be collecting all returned books since Vibis is traveling.

Volunteer Hours: Be sure to report yours periodically to Rita. Don't wait till the last minute to turn them in.

Program: Today is the holiday potluck and gift exchange.

Lace Day: Louise will provide an accounting. Thank you to all who worked to bring the event off.

OLD BUSINESS

Julia reported that our regular date of first Saturday of November 2015 is currently available, but we must claim it quickly. A brief discussion was held regarding the merits of moving the location or changing the date. Preregistration covered the cost of the big room this year according to Julia. A vote was taken to pay the $500 deposit for the first Saturday of November 2015. After a thorough accounting, basic discussion needs to be undertaken as to the future status of Lace Day.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

♥Marilyn Niven is recovering from complications with an old knee replacement. She is home and doing much better. ♥Eva Fergoda has a wedding garter for her granddaughter in the works. Those present wanted to gift her with a few rows each. ♥Julia thanked members present who have held jobs over the past two years with ornaments or bobbins; Lucie-Historian, Bill-Demonstrations, Heidi-Membership and Hospitality, Lynn-Secretary, Maria-Lace Day.

SHOW 'N TELL

Betty Jo-has a new great granddaughter, Madison Paige.

Lucie-is still knitting--a layette and fingerless gloves.

Julia-crocheted Olafs and made rose ground bracelets. Lia-announced a new pattern every Wednesday from five lace teachers on the following web site: <<http://www.kloskant.com/uk/everyweekanedgingorinsertion.html>>. 1st five patterns were Schneeberger. All of the patterns will continue to be available.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:30 to holiday festivities, a tasty potluck and a gift exchange.

Submitted,
Lynn L. Oliver
Secretary

Show & Share
